

AGENDA

90 minute session

Our churches and centers are evolving with the times. Manifesting our vision of an Awakened World depends, in large part, on blessing and affirming the independent work of each New Thought organization in our city.

There are contexts in which unifying a New Thought presence in our community would create new opportunities to offer our voice and our gifts to other faith traditions, media outlets, and civic institutions.

If we choose and intend to achieve this level of solidarity we can move forward into new and important strategic alliances with influential community leaders and new audiences in general.

* Decide on leader or co-facilitators to conduct the AGENDA.

- d) How might you see us working together (and with AGNT) to approach these opportunities?
